

Application for divorce

Zoe Elizabeth Dante is applying to the court for a decree of divorce from John James Dante, to order John James Dante to pay some or all of the divorce costs, and to make financial orders to decide how money and property will be split.

Issued
17 April 2018

Reference number
DIV 123 456 789

Applicant
Zoe Elizabeth Dante

Respondent
John James Dante

About the marriage

Who the marriage is between

Zoe Elizabeth Dante (formerly Zoe Elizabeth Sargasso) and John James Dante (as shown on the marriage certificate)

Where the marriage took place

At the Holy Trinity Church, in the Parish of Normanton by Derby, in the County of Derby

Date of marriage

10 October 2005

Why the court can deal with the case (jurisdiction)

The applicant and the respondent are both 'habitually resident' in England and Wales.

Other court cases that could affect jurisdiction

There are no other ongoing, completed or abandoned court cases related to the marriage, property or children which might affect the jurisdiction of the court.

Reason for the divorce (and supporting information)

The marriage has broken down irretrievably, based on the fact that the respondent and the applicant have been separated for 2 years and the respondent consents to a divorce.

The applicant stated that:

- they decided that the marriage was over on 3 September 2016
- they and the respondent started living apart on 2 September 2016

The most recent date is considered legally to be the date of separation

Additional applications

Costs orders

The applicant is applying to the court to claim the costs of the divorce from the respondent.

Financial orders

The applicant is applying to the court for a financial order in which the court decides on the financial matters of the applicant and the respondent.
